Juarez military officials say they do not know what route Carranza will take from Nogales to reach Jusrez, but it will probably be by rail to Agua Prieta, and then overland by auto to Casus Grandes or Guzman. A special train will meet him when he strikes the Mexico North Western railway, they say, and bring him to Juarez. Among the party traveling with Carranza is Timothy Turner, correspondent of the Associated Press, and formerly a reporter on the El Paso Herald.

Political Opposition Responsible, Senator Asserts On Witness Stand.

GIVES HIS VIEW OF ALLEGED ASSAULT

KLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb 16 .-Political opposition today was held responsible by Thomas P. Senator Gore was asked about his acquaintance with Mrs. Bond, the plaintiff, and replied that he remembered meeting her at a reception here and that her husband's candidacy for internal revenue collector was mentioned at the time. He said he had not given her any encouragement about her husband's candidacy.

Regarding the alleged assault in Washington the senator, in reply to questions told of meeting Mrs. Bond at her hotel after she had telephoned him to make the appointment. He said he never knew that James R. Jacobs, T. E. Robertson and others were at the hotel at the time.

Corporations will pay the bulk of the tax, as there are now no exemptions allowed them. Previous to last fall an exemption of $5000 was allowed for corporations. LACKBURN, England, Feb. 16.—To advertise the suffraget campaign, the women of this British town took an unusual course early today, when they loaded and fired a cannon that has been standing idle in one of the public parks for 60 years.

The reverberations of the mammoth field piece shook the town and brought the people pouring from their homes in all conditions of deshabille, wondering if it was an earthquake, a dynamite explosion or what. The cannon is an ancient one captured from the Russians at Sebastopol in 1854 and has ornamented the city

It was not until daylight that the cause of the explosion was discovered. Then it was found that the suffragets had carefully cleaned from the bore of the gun more than half a century's accumulation of gravel and stones before ramming home a heavy charge of gunpowder.

In the vicinity, attached to a tree, floated a long strip of calico inscribed: "Wake up, Blackburn.
